

MRS. BERTHALDINE BOOMER

Mother of President of the Waldorf Corporation.

ESTERO, Fla., July 13 (AP).--Mrs. Berthaldine S. Boomer, mother of Lucius M. Boomer, president of the Waldorf Corporation, operator of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York, died here yesterday. She was 84 years old. She had been a guiding member of Koreshan Unity since 1892. Lucius Boomer flew from New York to Estero to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Boomer was a minister and teacher of the Koreshan cult, founded by Dr. Cyrus Teed. The cult teaches that the inhabitants of the world live inside the earth.

Other survivors are two daughters, Miss Bertha S. Boomer of Estero and Mrs. Ruth Boomer Thomas of Philadelphia.
