

Juror Johnson Goes to Jail.

Chicago Daily Tribune (1872-1963); May 8, 1897; ProQuest Historical Newspapers Chicago Tribune (1849 - 1986)
pg. 11

Juror Johnson Goes to Jail.

Judge Stern yesterday committed to jail for five days W. W. Johnson, a juror, charged with soliciting a bribe from Assistant City Attorney Quinn O'Brien. Johnson lives at No. 3844 Cottage Grove avenue. It was stated that Johnson mistook O'Brien for the plaintiff in the suit of Wickey vs. Schreiber, and in which $3,500 damages were awarded.

Denies "Heaven" Is to Be Removed.

Dr. Cyrus Teed of the Koreshan community denies there is any foundation for the reported removal of his so-called "Heaven" from Washington Heights to Englewood.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.